

GACE® History Assessment Test II (035) Curriculum Crosswalk

Required Coursework Numbers

Subarea I. United States History to 1877 (40%)
Objective 1: Knows political, economic, social, and cultural developments in United States history to 1877
A. Knows North American geography, peoples, and cultures prior to European colonization
B. Understands the interactions between humans and the environment throughout North American history
C. Knows the reasons European colonies in North America were founded and how imperial and political conflicts and indigenous interests shaped the colonies' political and social development
D. Knows the demographic and economic development of the British colonies in North America
E. Knows the economic, social, and cultural effects of slavery in the British American colonies and in the antebellum United States
F. Understands the major causes and events of the American Revolution
G. Understands the successes and failures of the Articles of Confederation and the context that led to the writing and adoption of the United States Constitution and Bill of Rights

Required Coursework Numbers

H. Knows the major political developments in the United States during the presidential administrations of George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, and Andrew Jackson from the 1790s until the Civil War
I. Understands the causes and effects of United States territorial expansion and the growth of sectionalism in the 19 th century
J. Understands the market economy's emergence, development, and effects in the United States in the first half of the 19 th century
K. Understands the causes and effects of reform movements and religious movements in the antebellum United States; e.g., women's rights, abolition of slavery, temperance
L. Understands the causes and major events of the Civil War
M. Knows the legal, political, and social dimensions of Reconstruction to 1877
Subarea II. United States History from 1877 to the Present (40%)
Objective 1: Knows political, economic, social, and cultural developments in United States history from 1877 to the Present
A. Understands how and why industrialization, urbanization, and immigration shaped the development of the United States in the 19 th and early 20 th centuries

Required Coursework Numbers

B. Knows the global patterns and effects of United States imperialism in the late 19 th and early 20 th centuries
C. Knows regional developments in the United States (e.g., Jim Crow laws, American Indian policies) in the late 19 th and early 20 th centuries
D. Understands the changes in the politics, economy, and society of the United States resulting from Gilded Age and Progressive Era reforms
E. Understands the causes, major events, and effects of participation in the First World War on United States politics, society, and culture
F. Knows the political, social, economic, cultural, and demographic changes that occurred in the United States in the 1920s
G. Knows the causes and effects of the Great Depression
H. Knows the goals and programs of the New Deal and their effect on government, politics, the economy, and society
I. Knows the causes, major events, and effects of participation in the Second World War on United States politics, society, and culture
J. Knows the origins, development, and effects of the Cold War both abroad and domestically
K. Knows the causes, major events, and effects of the movements for civil rights by African Americans and other groups (e.g., women, Hispanics, American Indians) in the 20 th century

Required Coursework Numbers

L. Understands the social changes in the United States from the 1940s to the 1970s; e.g., the baby boom, counterculture, the sexual revolution
M. Knows the major social policy initiatives and political movements in the United States since the Second World War; e.g., the Great Society, the Reagan Revolution
N. Understands the global technological changes in the late 20 th and early 21 st centuries and their effects on the United States
O. Understands the economic changes in the late 20 th and early 21 st centuries and their effects on the United States
P. Understands the changing role of the United States in the post-Cold War world
Subarea III. History of Georgia (20%)
Objective 1: Knows political, economic, social, and cultural developments in the history of Georgia to 1877
A. Knows Native American cultures in Georgia prior to the European colonization and initial European exploration of Georgia
B. Knows the reasons the colony of Georgia was founded and how it developed
C. Knows the role of Georgia in the American Revolution
D. Understands the Georgia Constitution of 1777, Georgia's history under the Articles of Confederation, and Georgia's role at the Constitutional Convention of 1787

Required Coursework Numbers

E. Understands the factors that affected the development of Georgia as part of the growth of the United States between 1789 and 1840
F. Knows the impact of the Civil War and Reconstruction on Georgia
Objective 2: Knows political, economic, social, and cultural developments in the history of Georgia from 1877 to Present
A. Knows the key political, social, and economic changes that occurred in Georgia between 1877 and 1918
B. Understands how events in the United States and the world during the period 1918-1941 shaped Georgia’s development economically, socially, and politically
C. Understands the impact of the Second World War on Georgia’s development economically, socially, and politically
D. Knows the key post-World War II developments in Georgia from 1945 to 1970
E. Understands the role of Georgia in the modern civil rights movement
F. Understands the significant social, economic, political, and demographic changes in Georgia since 1970															